

THE BRITISH SAN MARTÍN INSTITUTE

In Honour of General José de San Martín, the Liberator of Argentina, Chile and Perú

ACTIVITIES REPORT BSMI EVENTS 2020 – 2023

This document contains the full list of online and in-person activities by the BSMI since the last AGM.

2023:

15.12.23 Joint Meeting BSMI and ABCC to coordinate the project “1824 – General José de San Martín historical visit to Banff, Scotland – 2024”

On 19 August 1824, during a two-week visit to his endearing friend James Duff, 4th Count of Fife, General San Martín received the Freedom of Royal Burgh of Banff in Aberdeenshire, Scotland. The only public recognition that General San Martín had in the United Kingdom.

The idea is to launch in August 2024 a simultaneous exposition in Banff, Scotland and in London, to commemorate this historical milestone that celebrates the achievements of General San Martín.

15.9.23 Signature Memorandum of Understanding between the British San Martín Institute and the Argentine British Community Council - Cuyo

This MOU establishes a common ground to develop joint activities in the following areas of work: Education, History, Cultural Diplomacy, Social Development and Sustainability.

17.8.23 Masterclass “Public Portraits. How the images of San Martín and other Latin American personalities were created during the XIX century”

By PhD Laura Malossetti Costa

Organised in partnership with the Argentine Embassy

17.8.23 173rd Anniversary of the Death of General José de San Martín – Official Commemorations

BSMI Recognition to Baroness Hooper, CMG (Patron) Alan Tabbush, OBE (Chairman Emeritus)

Organised in partnership with the Argentine Embassy

17.8.23 Launch of the new BSMI brochures and membership pins.

With the aim to increase of the visibility of the BSMI, an update version of the institutional brochure and a membership pin were available at the official commemorations of the 173rd Anniversary of the Death of General José de San Martín at the Residence of the Argentine Ambassador in London.

15.06.23 New website of the BSMI became accessible to the public. New corporate emails.

In June 2023, the new BSMI website was launched to the public (<http://sanmartin.org.uk/>)

Also, new corporate email addresses were assigned to the members of the BSMI Board.

23.2.23 Masterclass “San Martín and the Plan Maitland”

By PhD candidate Leandro Ocon

2022:

17.8.22 Presentation “Images of General San Martín”

By Visual Artist Ramiro Ghigliazza

Organised in partnership with the Argentine Embassy

17.8.22 172nd Anniversary of the Death of General José de San Martín – Official Commemorations

Organised in partnership with the Argentine Embassy

The British San Martín Institute (BSMI)

C/O Argentine Embassy in the United Kingdom, 65 Brooke Street , London W1K 4AH

Website: www.sanmartin.org.uk

E-mail: britishsanmartininstitute17@gmail.com

THE BRITISH SAN MARTIN INSTITUTE

In Honour of General José de San Martín, the Liberator of Argentina, Chile and Perú

28.7.22 Masterclass “San Martín y Bolívar, más allá de la entrevista de Guayaquil”

By Dr Natalia Sobrevilla Perea

24.3.22 Masterclass “The Life of José de San Martín”

By Dr Alejandro Rabinovich, Dr Juan Luis Ossa y Dr Natalia Sobrevilla

Organised in partnership with Canning House

25.2.22 Masterclass “General San Martín: His family and ancestors, and the myth about his birth.”

By Professor Carlos Campana.

2021:

17.8.21 Masterclass “El cruce de los andes, una epopeya de jóvenes valientes”

By Professor Adriana Micale

Organised in partnership with the Argentine Embassy

17.8.21 171st Anniversary of the Death of General José de San Martín – Official Commemorations

Organised in partnership with the Argentine Embassy

10.7.21 Masterclass “Turbulent Times: José de San Martín and Argentina’s Declaration of Independence”

By PhD Gabriel Di Meglio

Organised in partnership with the Argentine Embassy

25.2.21 Masterclass “San Martín, de soldado del Rey a héroe de la Nación”

By PhD Beatriz Bragoni

Organised in partnership with the Argentine Embassy

2020:

18.11.20 Masterclass “The Periodical Press and the Independence of Spanish America in the Times of San Martín”

By PhD candidate Juan Neves-Sarriegui

7.9.20 Masterclass “San Martín, Military career across continents and liberator of nations”

By Historian Eduardo Lazzari

Organised in partnership with the Peruvian Embassy

27.8.20 Masterclass “A conversation about San Martín”

By Writer Florencia Canale & Historian Felipe Pigna

Organised in partnership with the Argentine Embassy

17.8.20 170th Anniversary of the Death of General José de San Martín – Official Commemorations

Organised in partnership with the Argentine Embassy

30.7.20 Masterclass “The Music in the River Plate during San Martín times.”

By Dr Vera Wolkowicz

The British San Martín Institute (BSMI)

C/O Argentine Embassy in the United Kingdom, 65 Brooke Street , London W1K 4AH

Website: www.sanmartin.org.uk

E-mail: britishsanmartininstitute17@gmail.com